

The AIHE Academic Institute for Higher Education GmbH, based in Lübeck, runs accredited distance learning courses in psychology and psychological medicine on behalf of three universities (London and Vienna) with its own teaching staff and examiners. Students are enrolled in the partner universities and receive their Bachelor's or Master's degree certificates from them. In addition, AIHE offers 70 university certificate courses.

Our cooperation partner and sponsor is Prof. Dr. Friedemann Schulz von Thun. Advisory board members are former Minister President Björn Engholm and Dr Raimund Mildner.

We are urgently looking for lecturers for English and German live lectures on the topics below. The lectures always take place in the evening at 7 pm (German time).

We are looking for

lecturers for live lectures

Prerequisite: You have a doctorate and/or a professorship.

Need immediately:

- Emergency Psychology
- Intervention in shock situations
- Introduction to Social Psychology
- Communication and Conflict

From September:

Our evening lecture series will be offered across all degree programmes as a voluntary, interdisciplinary offering for our distance learning students (average age 44 and Manger).

We are therefore not bound by any learning objectives and can choose exciting topics from all areas that enhance life skills.

Lecture topics should touch on these subject areas:

- Psychology
- Social psychology
- Industrial psychology

- Cyber Psychology
- Addiction and dependencies
- Clinical psychology
- Social sciences
- Somatopsychology
- Future Society
- Health Maintenance
- and many more possibilities

We pay 150 euros for a 90-minute live lecture (45 minutes lecture, 45 minutes exchange with students).

Please feel free to send suggestions for topics you would like to lecture on as an expert.

Please send your email directly to our managing director Dr. Andrea Gensel (application@academic-institute.com).

Thank you very much.
